

NWGA Threesomes

Definition: A type of match in which one golfer plays against a team of two golfers, with each player playing her own ball until holed. The single player, obviously, is playing his own ball throughout; the team side uses the best ball of two method. Today "Threesomes" will be played as "Match Play", the single golfer or team that wins the most holes is the victor.