

Chairwoman

In a Chairwoman format, each player plays her ball throughout. The player with the lowest net score earns the title of “Chairwoman”. The Chairwoman retains the title until another player achieves the lowest net score on a hole (use dotted cards). The players who holds the title of “Chairwoman”, of their pairing, after the 18th hole are the winners.